CHURCH CRAFT

In this activity, you will color and build a church. On the outside of the building, there are symbols showing ways the church helps the community. In addition to sharing the gospel with people, many churches also pray for and with people, feed those who are hungry, build friendships, and provide education and healthcare.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Print both pages on 8.5”x11” paper

2. Color the roof and walls

3. Cut out the roof and walls along the solid lines

4. Fold along the dotted lines with the images facing out

5. Glue or tape the flaps to form corners and walls

6. Place the roof on top of the church

7. Pray for churches that are serving their communities
